A Brief Report:

Date: 09-03-2019

Department of Commerce and Management organized one-day orientation programme on professional courses like CA, CS and CMA on 09-03-2019 for final year B.Com students. The programme started at 10.30 a.m., by invocation. Prof. Rajendra HOD of commerce and management welcomed the guests and gave key notes address. Prof. Rajendra said that, finance is a growing field, with huge opportunities in India and abroad. All are required to track their financial data and maintain books of accounts. All these require financial professionals. Financial professionals occupy an important position in the organization.

Mr. C.S. Nagasharan, Director, Sura Academy, Bangalore delivered excellent lecture on the topic. He said that professional courses are playing important role in the field of finance. He compared the professional courses and other course available, to the commerce graduates. Professional courses like CA, CS and CMA are always in demand and there is no unemployment problem in these courses.

These courses are affordable at a lesser cost, when compared to M.B.A in business school, which cost up to Rs.25 lakhs. Mr.C.S Nagasharan said that, commerce graduates should get a professional degree from any recognized educational institutions. Chartered Accountant (CA), Company secretary (CS), and Cost and work accountant (CMA) are managed by Institute of Chartered Accountant of India (ICAI), Institute of company secretaries of India (ICSI) and institute of cost accountant of India (ICAI) respectively. He also gave information about, admission procedure and group wise subjects to pass the courses like: foundation course, intermediate and final. Any PUC students can register any of these three courses. Besides, he gave the fee structure, duration of the courses and internship.
