Teachers Day Celebration

Date : 05-09-2022

The Teacher's day was organized by cultural committee on, 5-09-2022. It was started with lighting of the lamp ceremony, followed by a floral tribute to the greatest teacher of India Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan from our Principal Dr.H.S.Ravindra, Dr.B. Loksha Former Principal and other faculty members of SAC College.

The role of a teacher in our life is an important one, as they lay the foundations in growing up years. At times, they appear to be tough on us, but it's only for our betterment as they ultimately try to mould, shape and chisel our raw talents and potentials, and help us fight our fears and weaknesses. A teacher's role is not only to impart knowledge to their students, but to also, to inspire and encourage us. And so, honouring such remarkable people in our lives Teachers Day is marked and celebrated as an important day across the world.

Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan was the second President, of India and he believed that teachers should be the best minds in the country. Being modest and humble in nature, when his friends and students urged him to celebrate his birth anniversary, he appealed that, he wanted people to celebrate it as , "Teachers Day" in the country as a mark of respect and honour to all the teachers. The programme was hosted by the students.

It was started with invocation by Shubha.B.B, I M.Com, Charanraj T.R, I M.Com, gave warm welcome to all teachers.

The chief guest Dr. B.K. Loksha, former Principal of SAC College, spoke on the achievements of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan.
